

Flamencana

Experience the true spirit of España!

Every Tuesday evening from 8.00pm!

Salvador's popular commercial flamenco show 'Flamencana' aims to encourage everyone to understand and enjoy the art of flamenco through observation and participation. This really is the show for all occasions as it offers flamenco from traditional "puro flamenco" to hip-swinging gypsy king style rumbas that will get everyone dancing!

Real flamenco shows with music written and composed in Andalucía by Fernando Puro, top London guitarists, and flamenco dancers as seen at the Royal Opera House. The unique collaboration brings together "first class singer and dancer" (What's on) Samantha Luisa (hailed by The Stage newspaper as "exceptional talent"), and Andalusian singer/song writer Fernando Puro ("most striking singing" - The Times). This "Highly talented pair" (Hippodrome) bring you a series of colourful "palos" or forms of flamenco music from all over Andalucía - direct from Spain!
